

Hundreds of people attended the Lynzapalooza that raised $80,000 for scholarships and charities in memory of Frankfort young woman, Lyndsey Whittingham

With the Whittingham Family looking on, State Representative Renee' Kosel speaks to the crowd at Lynzapalooza about taxi safety laws she sponsored after Lyndsey died as a result of being hit by a taxi in Chicago. The Governor signed the bill into law on September 11.

(l-r) Colleen Whittingham, Kevin Whittingham, Katie Newell, Shelby, Jordan & Taylor Matevich and Joe Whittingham enjoy the Lynzapalooza held on behalf of Lyndsey Whittingham

Also enjoying the Lynzapalooza (l-r) Alicia Andry, Maria Torres, Ana Whittingham and Kristin Rossi

Over 200 auction items and raffle prizes were donated by generous community members, businesses, friends and family. The event raised $80,000 to be used for scholarships and charities.

Lyndsey's best friend Ashley Pyle (front center) organizes volunteers outside CD & ME as guests begin to arrive. Many of the volunteers who came to help were friends of Lyndsey